Meet with another art restoration company last week. There's a bit more damage on the Sycamore sculpture other than just the graffiti. To move that piece is around $2,000. There is litter to be picked up along the river and also Honeysuckle to be cut down.

Open Forum:

Matt Wolf – a lot of the residents on Penn Ave, west of 3rd are still struggling with garbage of properties along the street and ally. Columbus Properties of Ohio is the property management. There was a meeting with the property management. There have been many 311 complaints. The city inspector has been involved. Expressed concern for the neighbors. There is need for more collection bins, not enough capacity for the amount of residents. Matt will continue to work with the city. The folks on Penn are very frustrated. Open invite to contact Matt if there are other trash issues.

Brenn – it looks like Thrive is behind a redevelopment of the traffic on Perry going south onto 3rd. This will eliminate parking in front of the Park. It will also be a huge safety hazard. Bob, we should reach out to Katherine Cull again and loop in Thrive.
