NEIGHBORS TALK TURKEY WITH 4TH AVENUE SENIORS

By Betty Crockpot
Special to Harrison West News

Thanksgiving dinner was celebrated this year four days earlier than the traditional holiday at the Michigan Avenue Senior Center. Mary Funk planned and coordinated the wonderfully successful event for Harrison West residents that included not only a collectively prepared turkey and ham feast, but also a delightful afternoon spent at the Center. About 30 seniors reside at the former Fourth Avenue School that has been converted into apartments.

Charlene and Orville Funk brought a relish tray and a delicious baked ham that was prepared by Charlene's mother, Erma Smith. A tender turkey that had spent the morning roasting in the company of candied sweet potatoes was presented by Penny Nichols. Tim Bledsoe and Rob Harris covered the staple requirement of every Thanksgiving dinner with mashed potatoes and also baked a lemon-iced cake. Epicurean Mary Funk whipped up a knock-out corn bread pudding. Mary also baked two killer-rich cheesecakes topped with cherries and an equally delicious banana pudding. Helen Knapp and Peg Matthews each brought super homemade cranberry sauce to the feast. Karen Dyrenforth and Craig Copeland came with a kettle of pole beans simmered with maple-cured side meat. Helen Dotson contributed the dinner rolls and a big batch of delicious green beans cooked with bacon. Lil Dehart also provided dinner rolls. Barb Beatty brought a wonderful garden salad. Gastronome Marsha Cox's dessert offering sent everyone back for seconds with three homemade pumpkin pies, baked under the watchful eye of son Ian, served with whipped cream.

Splendid afternoons like this one do not come along every day. Everyone had a great time and universally all are looking forward to participating next year — if not sooner — possibly at Christmas. As it turns out, several of the seniors who have now moved to the Center at Michigan and Fourth Avenues, once worked or had spent time in or around the Harrison West area long before most of us had ever heard of the neighborhood we, too, call home. ▲

Proposed Constitutional Changes Concerning Membership and Dues

Discussions of the last couple of months have yielded an improved definition of who may be a member of the Society and the method for determining voting for non-resident property owners and businesses. Classifications of membership have been created for the purpose of defining levels of contributions by the membership. Allowing for maximum flexibility, the levels are to be determined without restriction by a majority vote of the Society.

PROPOSED TEXT OF ARTICLE III ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

A. Membership shall be open to all residents, non-resident property owners, businesses, churches and other institutions in good standing in the community. Each member is entitled to one vote. Businesses, churches and other institutions are limited to one vote. Non-resident property owners are limited to one vote per entity (e.g. corporation, company or partnership) and not vote per property. Entities that share a common member or relationship shall be considered to have the interests of the whole represented by that one member and are limited to one vote. Members must be present at Society meetings to cast votes; no proxy votes shall be permitted.

1. Individual Memberships are open to those individuals, 18 years or older, interested in the aims and principles of the Society and who live in Harrison West.

2. Household Memberships are open to those individuals, who reside together, are 18 years or older, interested in the aims and principals of the Society and live in Harrison West.

3. Sustaining Memberships, or other similarly named memberships, are open to those who qualify for Individual or Household Memberships seeking to contribute to the Society at a greater level.

4. Patron Memberships are open to those non-resident property owners, businesses, churches and other institutions interested in the aims and principles of the Society and that are located in Harrison West.

5. Honorary Membership may be conferred by the Society upon persons who have contributed outstanding service to the community or have a substantial interest in the Harrison West neighborhood. Honorary members may attend all meetings, serve on committees in an advisory capacity and participate in discussion, but are not entitled to vote or hold office.

B. Every person applying for membership and every member shall be of good character and of good standing in the community. Every application shall be approved by the Executive Board unless a majority of the Executive Board votes to the contrary. A member who fails to meet the standard of membership may be ejected from the Society if a majority of the Executive Board and sixty-six (66) percent of those present at the annual election of officers votes for dismissal from the Society. The Executive Board shall have the right to determine membership in each of the classifications.

C. Membership in the Society is to be maintained by regular annual renewal of registration and payment of dues for all members, on May 1, to the Secretary. The dues schedule is to be determined by the membership. The Executive Board may waive dues for cause upon request. Applicants for membership in the Society must submit dues with the application and shall receive voting privileges sixty (60)

Mayor Perfects Environmental Two-Step in Battelle Ballroom

By Tim Wagner
Battelle Permit Opposition
Committee

As many people already know, Battelle has requested the Ohio Hazardous Waste Facility Board (HWFB) to allow it to expand its hazardous waste storage facility 200 times, quadruple the number of different toxic wastes with more stable compounds, and move their facility closer to the Olentangy River in the 100-year flood plain.

On 11 October 1994, Mayor Greg Lashutka told HWFB that he was opposed to Battelle Memorial Institute's hazardous waste storage expansion plans because of its proximity to the river and the adjacent neighborhoods. Shortly thereafter, Battelle complained to Lashutka about his position and he promptly gave in. On 21 November, he revised his statement to HWFB deleting his opposition to Battelle's plans, as well as his concern for the river and the nearby neighborhoods.

In effect, the Mayor is telling the citizens of Columbus that the proximity of hazardous waste storage facilities to neighborhoods and rivers within city limits is not his concern; if citizens are concerned for their own safety and that of the environment, they need to go elsewhere for representation and leadership. If you disagree with Mayor Lashutka, tell him so the next time you see his name in a voting booth.

City Council tried to make up for the Mayor's flip-flop with their own statement to HWFB, but connected their concerns to Battelle's location within the 100-year flood plain. They stated that if Battelle's earthen levee meets FEMA standards, they were no longer concerned about the site's proximity to the river and the neighborhoods. You can thank Council's Health Committee chairwoman Les Wright for lack of concern for the neighborhoods' health. ▲

Ballot Options To Be Appealed

Bar owners have hired highly regarded liquor option attorney, Don McTigue, to file an appeal to block the recent election drying up on-premises consumption in precinct 33-I.

Neighbors Improving Community Environment, the grassroots organization that sponsored the initiative, will attempt to hire an attorney to represent the interests of the majority voters in the precinct. Contact Treasurer Tim Bledsoe to assist them in their effort. ▲

A POULTRY QUIZ

Red Rooster Poultry

Where in Columbus can one get the freshest grain-fed, "free-range" poultry? Where can one find those hard to find poultry items such as chicken feet, duck breasts, pheasant, squab, snipe? Where can you get Fox's U-Bet (essential egg cream ingredient), Maine "Needhams" and the biscuit that made Nabisco famous, UNEEDAS? Where can one find the best collection of "coop" humor by cartoonists such as Gary Larson, Buddy Hickerson and Dan "Bizarro" Piraro?

You guessed it — the one and only Red Rooster Poultry in the North Market.

This unique place was created by the husband and wife team, Jim Coe and Sharon Levy, who combined their love of the market with their goal to operate a family business, offering the finest in fresh poultry. Originally, they planned to offer only the finest and freshest poultry. But in response to demand, they have steadily increased the ready-to-eat products they sell. Today, you can choose from nine different flavors of rotisserie chicken, including a Habanero-glaze and spicy Jamaican Jerk marinade. They can also roast your duck and cook your goose! Order soon to reserve your holiday birds, be they goose, duck, turkey or rotisserie chicken. Their expanded catering menu now includes Bexley Wings, rumaki and their famous "Just Like Mom's" chopped liver (made with schmaltz and lots of onions). The tarragon chicken salad with its unique yogurt and chunks of white breast meat is fantastic (you've got to try it)! Among recent fans of Red Rooster's rotisserie chicken is Texas roots-rocker Jimmy Dale Gilmour and the band Los Lobos. The list goes on, so pay this place a visit or call them (461-1941). They'll be waiting to hear from you! ▲
